

CLAIMS

The claim is:

- 5 1. A anti-glare safety divider frame mounted and anchored onto a road barrier is comprised of: 1) two intersecting bars; 2) two vertical rods; 3) a blade frame, which is equipped with various kinds of blades; 4) plurality of extends extended from the blade frame; and 5) bolts and nuts for fixing the blade module onto the intersecting bars.

10

2. A blade frame from an anti-glare safety divider mounting frame, as mentioned in claim 1, is equipped with blades which are spaced approximately the same width of blade in order to have a means to gradually change angles from 60 to 90 degrees depending on the 15 transactional lines of the road.

3. A blade frame from a glare proof safety divider module, as mentioned in claim 1, is equipped with rotating blades having more than two wings per blade.

20